

Melorheostosis

- Rare condition of cortical thickening of unknown etiology commonly seen in the long bones
- 3-59 years
- Symptoms: pain of varying severity, limited ROM, contracture
- Insidious onset and chronic course
- Xray findings:
 - Cortical sclerosis and thickening that may encroach on the medullary canal -- looks like wax flowing down a candle

Dripping Candle

Melorheostosis

Melorheostosis

