

Myopia

- Near-sightedness, also known as short-sightedness and myopia, is a condition of the eye where light focuses in front of, instead of on, the retina.
- This causes distant objects to be blurry while close objects appear normal